EDUCATIONAL CONDITIONS IN SOUTHERN SINKIANG

Ch'en Fang-pai, Deputy Commissioner of Education in Sinkiang, recently gave a report on educational conditions in the southern part of the province.

There are 20 community education centers, of which five are province-operated and 15 are hsien-operated.

There is only one normal and one middle school in Su-fu (Kashgar). There are four short-course normal schools, one each in Wen-su (Aktau); Hotien (Khoten), So-shi'e, and Ten-sh'i. Vocational schools are found in Su-fu, Wen-su and Hotien.

He reported that in the 38 districts in southern Sinkiang there were 69 centralized primary schools, with 492 classes, and 13,843 pupils; 318 primary schools, with 1,170 classes, and 48,637 pupils; 615 schools, operated by societies, with 2,067 classes and 98,989 pupils; nine schools for orphans, operated by cultural societies, with 30 classes and 1,038 pupils.
